Important Guidelines for Visitors to Zanzibar

To ensure a respectful and enjoyable experience, we kindly request all visitors to observe the following rules:

1. Dress Modestly: Zanzibar is a predominantly Muslim community. Please dress modestly, especially when visiting villages or public areas. Swimwear is acceptable on beaches and at the hotel but not in town or villages.
2. Respect Local Customs: Be mindful of local traditions and practices, particularly during religious events and prayer times.
3. Photography Etiquette: Always ask for permission before taking photos of local people, especially in rural areas.
4. Environmentally Friendly Practices: Avoid littering and help preserve Zanzibar's natural beauty by disposing of waste responsibly.
5. No Collecting Marine Life: Refrain from collecting shells, coral, or other marine life, as these are protected by conservation laws.
